

University of Zurich<sup>UZH</sup>

Competence Center for Human Rights
University Research Priority Program (URPP) Asia and Europe
Department of Social and Cultural Anthropology

---

Guest lecture

Human Rights & Corporate Social Responsibility

What, if any, Human Rights Responsibilities may Multinational Corporations owe to the worst-off Humanity?

Prof. Dr. Upendra Baxi

Professor Upendra Baxi is one of India's most renowned legal scholars. He used to be the Vice Chancellor of the Universities of South Gujarat and Delhi. Since the early 1980s, he has held the position of Research Director of the Indian Law Institute. In 1996 he was appointed as Professor at the University of Warwick (UK). Since April 2011 Prof. Dr. Upendra Baxi is a Fellow at the Käte Hamburger Centre for Advanced Study "Law as Culture".

When: Wednesday, 26 October 2011, 18:15 – 19:45

Where: University of Zurich, Main Building, Rämistrasse 71, KOL-G-209

The guest lecture is organized by
Competence Center for Human Rights
Department of Social and Cultural Anthropology
URPP Asia and Europe

