Young Researcher Workshop (Panel Discussion)

Academic Career Paths in Asian Studies: Commonalities and Differences in Asia, Europe, and North America

16:00-18:00, June 2, 2025

University of Zurich, Room RAA G15, Rämistrasse 59, 8006 Zürich

The panel will focus on PhD programs and the transition from doctoral studies to an early academic career. The aim is to discuss the similarities and particularities of the various national academic systems (Germany, France, Switzerland, the US, and beyond), current developments and problems, and the openness or closed nature of the national academic systems for postdocs from outside.

The audience will be given ample time to participate in the discussion and raise their own questions and issues. PhD students and postdocs in particular are invited to join the panel discussion. The panel will be followed by an apéro, which will provide an opportunity for informal exchange.

Panel participants

Laura Agnel (PhD candidate, École française d'Extrême-Orient)

Maria Carbune (PhD candidate, Heidelberg University)
