

University of
Zurich^{UZH}

Student Group for Tibet (STAFT)
University Research Priority Program (URPP) Asia and Europe
Department of Social Anthropology and Cultural Studies

Between China and the World: Issues in Tibet's History

Thursday, November 17, 2016, 18:15–20:00

University of Zurich, RAA E-08, Rämistrasse 59, 8001 Zurich

Guest Lecture

Prof. Dr. Elliot Sperling (Indiana University Bloomington)

Elliot Sperling is Associate Professor of Central Eurasian Studies and an expert on the history of Tibet and Tibetan-Chinese relations. Currently, he is a Numata Visiting Professor at the Department of South Asian, Tibetan and Buddhist Studies, University of Vienna.

Organization

A cooperation between the Student Group for Tibet (STAFT), the URPP Asia and Europe, and the Department of Social Anthropology and Cultural Studies

www.asienundeuropa.uzh.ch
www.isek.uzh.ch